COMMENT OF

The Soviet Reply

Big Three invitation to hold a meeting of Foreign discuss European problems, notably the future of Germany and Austrian treaty, is not particularly beyond the wit of the Soviets to give a simple "yea" or "no" to a simple proposal; they always find it necessary to encompass their replies with conditions, either stated or implied. while expressing willingness to join in fourpower discussions, they complicate the situation by insigting that Communist China must take .. part in conferences dealing with international questions. Yet the Kremlin must know that the Big Three could never agree to the Peking Government participating in discussions concerning Germany and Austria. An attempt to turn the Big Four meeting into a Big Five conference and to broaden the agenda will most certainly be resisted by the West, and Russia knows this full well. Why then has Mr Molotov raised Red China's position in replying to the invitation to talks on purely European issues? NE possibility is that the Capetown, Aug. 5. Mr N. C. Havenga, South African Finance Minister, told the House of Assembly today that negotiations were taking place between the sterling area and the United States on the price of gold and sterling convertibility.

Mr Havenga, who was replying to the budget debate, said the most important factor in the Union's economic situation was that in contrast with the rest of the world the price of its main export-gold-was exactly the same as it had beenin the years before any other price went up and he added that there was little possibility of any rise in the price of gold im the near future unless sterling was made convertible. First Batch From N. Korea Sterling's In Good Physical Condition

Britannia Camp, Aug. 5. Doctors who examined returning Commonwealth prisoners of war at Britannia Camp today said the men were in the best of health and showed evidence of "reasonable care and medical attention".

Some of the medical staff were even more enthusiastic. One army doctor said most of the men appeared to be "fit and in tip-top condition" while the senior medical adviser to the operation, Colonel Walter McCannel of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, commented on the new and well-fitting dentures which a few were wearing. Certainly today the British prisoners seemed fit and well. They told correspondents that they had had nothing to do but play sport and this was evident in their good physical condition and sun-tanned arms and faces. At Britannia Camp this after- is a fair or even good sample,

Australian "Disbalance" Japan

Canberra, Aug. 5. The Australian Commerce and Agriculture Minister, Mr John NcEwen, said loday that Australia was studying her "tremendous disbalance of trade" with Japan,

He was commenting on a statement at the Formers and Settlers conference in Sydney BANKS that Japan might have to make heavy cuts in its wool purchases from Australia because of its shortage of sterling.

(Japanese Embassy officials were reported in June to have predicted an early conference with Australia to discuss Japan's . exchange difficulties. The Chairman of the Australian Wool Growers' Association, Mr R.D. Bakewell, urged early relief from import restrictions Japan which, he sald, bought 15 times more goods than she sold to Australia during the first nine months of last year). Mr McEwen said today that it was important for Australia to maintain trade with Japan, which he understood had recently fallen from first to second place in the list of the Dominion's wool customers.-Reuter.

Tax Assesors Threaten Io The Case Go On Strike

FROM H. KING WOOD

Sydney, Aug. 4. One of the strangest strike threats of the week came from—of all places—the Taxation Department.

ASKS FOR HER BROTHER TO SENT TO PRISON

"Then He Will Learn His Lesson"

The story of the early life and upbringing of a self-confessed thief and forger was told to Judge A. D. Blair-Kerr at Victoria District Court this morning, when the sister of Raymond John Love Spencer, aged 23, of no fixed abode, charged with four counts involving larceny, fraud and forgery, pleaded for her brother.

She told how defendant, who had four aliases. was always spoilt by his mother, and how she had often forecast that he would end up in gaol. She ended by asking that he be sent to prison—"for then he will learn his lesson, and when he comes out will be able to earn his living properly." The defendant was sentenced to two years' hard
